PORTFOLIO

PRESENTATION

Born in 2001, I discovered theatre at a young age and have been driven by storytelling ever since.

Trained in France, Switzerland, and internationally, I work across acting and screenwriting, exploring stories through language, performance, and human connection.

Curiosity, sincerity, and joy guide my artistic path

Creative Presentation

I am grateful to dedicate each day to what brings me alive: telling stories. My path has grown between theatre stages, film sets, and classrooms, guided by a desire to embody, understand, and share. Shaped by languages, cultures, and varied influences, my vision of cinema and acting continues to evolve. If I had to sum up my drive in one word, it would be gratitude.

LE POIDS D'UN CORPS

on tour 2024-2026

Le Poids d'un corps tells the story of Saskia and Tao, former lovers who meet again. Together, they revisit a past marked by an interrupted pregnancy. The play explores with tenderness and honesty the solitude, the memory of an intimate choice, and the invisible weight left by the silences of the past.
